1968 AROUND THE WORLD

An Intergenerational OLLI University Day
Generously underwritten by Diane & Steve Tobin

Wednesday, November 7, 2018
9am-3:30pm

The Daniel Arts Center
Bard College at Simon's Rock
84 Alford Road, Great Barrington, Mass.

This sequel to OLLI's 1968: Fifty Years Later University Day explores 1968's movements and issues around the world in concert with faculty and students at Bard College at Simon's Rock. The day features a lecture by OLLI instructor and professor Martin Weinstein on Latin American revolutions and counterrevolutions in 1968, a panel discussion with eyewitnesses to 1968 upheavals in Panama, Czechoslovakia, and France, a curated selection of film footage from 1968, and more.

Your registration fee includes morning coffee and refreshment and lunch. Parking is free and plentiful. (Photo above taken in 1968: first photo of Earth from space.)
